

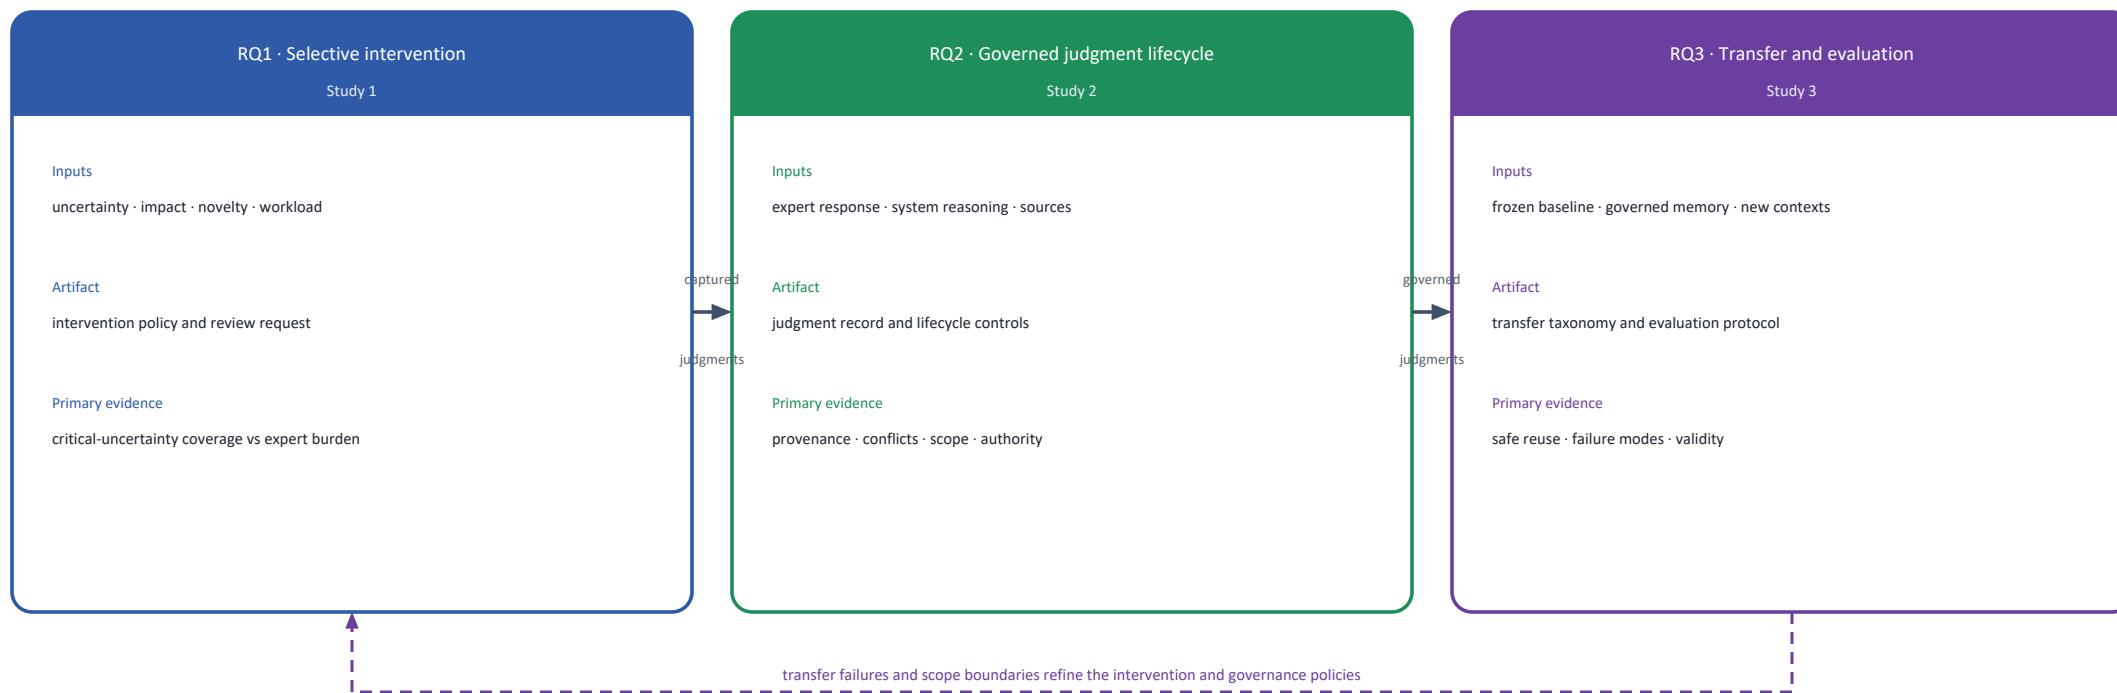

Figure 3. Three questions, one cumulative programme.

Each question hands a defined product to the next; results from the last refine the first two.